

Holocaust Studies

Course Overview

Holocaust Studies is a single-semester course that describes the mass murder of millions of Jews during the Nazi rule in Germany and its impact on the international community. In this course, you will trace the history of Jews living in Europe and the origins of anti-Semitism. You will learn about the early life of Hitler and his rise to power. The course also describes how the Nazis exterminated the Jews and how Jews resisted. You will also learn about the liberation of the Jews and the impact of the Holocaust on the non-Jewish community. The course also covers the outcome of post-war trials.

Course Goals

By the end of this course, you will:

- Trace the history of the Jewish community in Europe and describe their way of life.
- Describe the aftermath of World War I leading to the Great Depression.
- Trace the origins of anti-Semitism and explain its role in the rise of the Nazi Party.
- Describe the early life of Adolf Hitler and explain how he rose to power.
- Describe the beginning of the Third Reich era and explain how the Nazis attempted to create a super race.
- Identify and describe the key events of World War II and its consequences.
- Describe the establishment of the ghettos and the living conditions found there.
- Explain the construction of the concentration camps and describe the life of the prisoners at the camps.
- List the objectives of the plan called the Final Solution and explain how it was implemented.
- Explain the establishment of the extermination camps and describe how they operated.

- Describe the resistance shown by the Jewish community and explain how they were liberated from the Nazis.
- Explain the impact of the Holocaust on non-Jewish people.
- Explain the significance and the outcome of various post-war trials.
- Explain the impact of the Holocaust on the international community and how the victims went about rebuilding their lives.
